

LET'S READ

The following is a list of recommended books that can be borrowed from local libraries, ordered online or viewed via Kindle. Enjoy!

Begin with Light

By Patricia Divelbiss

(FRANKLIN COUNTY AUTHOR)

It has been three years since Haley Hampton rescued her sister, Avery, from a human trafficking ring. They are still struggling through the aftermath. The past is quickly catching up to them. A string of death threats leaves Haley on the hunt for a potential killer. Tension, intrigue, and a connection to God.

Cumberland Valley: From Tuscarora to Chambersburg to Blue Ridge

By: Ann Hull (FRANKLIN COUNTY AUTHOR)

Explore the rich history of Cumberland Valley, Pennsylvania, and its surrounding areas including Franklin County in this 2011 Arcadia Publishing series.

The Door Between the Trees

By D.E. Longacre

(FRANKLIN COUNTY AUTHOR)

Explore another land and another time. Discover whether reason can withstand the dilemmas of time dilation and the struggle of good and evil. Preview on Google Books.

The White Lady of Pond Bank

By Sandy A. Kendall

(FRANKLIN COUNTY AUTHOR)

The story of the White Lady of Pond Bank, PA has mesmerized folks for many decades. After many years in hiding, s/he is ready to reveal his/her identity. In this true story, the entire legend will unravel right before your eyes. You will need to read this story to find out what really happened more than sixty years ago.

Slavery & Underground Railroad

By: Cooper Wingert

The Appalachian Mountains and the Susquehanna River provided natural cover for fleeing slaves. Author Cooper Wingert explores the local infrastructure and stories of escaping enslaved.

Other books by Franklin County authors to consider:

"Life Interrupted: The Story of a Young Stroke Survivor"

by Marty Zimmerman

"I Dare You" and "Yes You Can"

by Isabella Morgenthal

"Not Abandoned" and "Out of the Dark"

by Mackenzie Morgenthal

"Edwina the Exquisite"

by Cassandra French

"When Cancer Clouds the Sky"

by Beverly E. Hannah

"The Snarky Girl's Guide to Breast Cancer"

by Andrea Ciccocioppo Rose