

1 Seth Holmes -
Holmes Watercolors

8 East Main St.
Waynesboro

Seth aims to highlight the quirky beauty of local buildings, using vibrant colors and playful exaggeration to invite viewers to look at familiar places with fresh eyes.

2 Karen Manderson - Waste Not,
Want Not Quilts & Soft Fabric Creations

723 Fir Spring Dr
Waynesboro

Karen works with lots of "leftover" fabrics to create tastefully done art work.

3 Jay and Kathy Brown -
Sugar Hollow Farm Alpacas, LLC

9955 Masters Rd,
Waynesboro

Visit Sugar Hollow Farm Alpacas, meet the herd, shop for hand knitted items, yarn, and ceramics, and experience the joy of alpacas!

4 Mary Ashe-Mahr -
Ceramics

10983 Mentzer Gap
Rd, Waynesboro

Mary creates functional stoneware pottery made for everyday use as well as creating pieces using the Raku method that is completed outdoors with unpredictable and stunning results.

6 Marti Yeager -
Oil Painting

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Marti strives to create work that is visually exciting and expressive. Because she doesn't like to limit her options for artistic expression, her style varies widely, from fairly "realistic" to completely abstract.

6 Sheila Druist -
Acrylic

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Sheila's artwork is a celebration of vibrant color to inspire mental well being. Her primary medium is acrylic, though lately, she has been incorporating gel printing and collage into her process.

People's Choice Award

A fun and interactive event where viewers can support their favorite artist by buying votes online or in person at Gallery 50. Each vote helps artists climb the ranks, and the artist with the most votes at the end will win a $100 gift card. Even better, voters will enter a raffle with a chance to win a piece of artwork from the artist they voted for, making it a win-win for both fans and creators!

For more information:
artsalliancegw.org

Sponsored by The Arts Alliance of

ART STUDIO TOUR

Saturday, November 1st 9 am - 3 pm

Meet talented local artists, explore their studios, and experience the vibrant art scene in our town!

5 Lexi Shockey -
Blue Lemonade Ceramics

17 Park St,
Mont Alto

Lexi creates wheel thrown functional ceramics and focuses heavily on surface decoration using mono-printing and screen printing techniques to create her surfaces.

6 Carolyn Seibert-Drager - The Farmer's Daughter's Flowers Photography

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Carolyn's photography is infused with her love of flowers and bright colors, sprinkled with an affection for poster and pop art.

6 Annamarie Poole -
Blue Mist Pottery

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Annamarie loves making pieces that enrich people's lives as they use them and she loves the endless creative options that clay, glaze and fire offer her.

6 Andrea Finch -
Afinchsong Creation Textile Art

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Once a traditional flat quilter, Andrea's work has left the surface to become sculptures that taunt the viewer to reach out and touch.

6 Leslie McEntire -
Oil Painting

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Leslie finds creating artwork to be mentally challenging, totally engaging, and most of all – fun!

6 Anne St. John -
Oil Painting

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Anne uses botanicals, fruit, leaves and plant life as a vehicle to express bold color and compelling form presenting them in a close-up view.

6 Kimberly Cois -
Watercolor

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Kim began her career as a caricature artist, and this early experience with cartoon imagery still informs her approach to artwork. Line is a very important element for her, and she is drawn to simplified and stylized forms.

6 Don & Edie Druktenis -
Pottery and Woodworking

50 W Main St,
Waynesboro

Don and Edie create one of a kind, simple and useful pottery and woodworking items for folks to enjoy and use in their homes or to give as gifts.

